No. C.539-2 Office of the Inspector-General of Prisons
in Mysore, Bangalore,
Dated 30th November 1927.

From

The Inspector-General of Prisons
in Mysore, Bangalore.

To

The General Secretary to the Government of H.H. the Maharaja of Mysore, Bangalore.

Sir,

I have the honour to state that as per Rule 239 of the Mysore Jail Manual every male convict other than convict Officers sentenced to Rigorous Imprisonment is put on a light iron ring on the right ankle. The Superintendent of the Bangalore Central Jail recommends the abolition of such ankle rings for reasons set forth in his letter No. 352/F. 45 dated 11th March 1925 (Copy enclosed).

On a reference in this connection to the Inspector General of Prisons Madras, he states in his letter No. 5874 dated 27th March 1925 (copy enclosed) that the use of ankle rings was discontinued in that Province with reference to para 302 of the report of the Indian Jails Committee.

Under the circumstances I recommend that the procedure in vogue in the Jails of Madras, may be adopted in our Jails also and that the use of ankle rings be discontinued in future except for the purpose of security. Necessary amendment will be made to the rule in the Jail Manual, if approved.
